

GED/HI-SET & ADULT EDUCATION

- Catholic Charities offers GED classes for youth who have dropped out of school. There is an optional vocational education component including internship, job shadowing, and employment. Contact (617) 506-6600 for more information. Visit: www.ccab.org/education
- Mujeres Unidas Avanzando (MUA Boston) offers 2 levels of courses for Spanish speaking women and girls pursuing their Hi-SET/GED, including courses for students at a pre-Hi-SET (grades 2-8) education level. For more information, call (617) 282-3500. Free on-site childcare may be available during classes. Visit: <http://muaboston.org/services/classes>
- The Mass Adult Literacy Hotline has an online program finder for adult basic education, literacy, and GED programs in Massachusetts. Visit: massliteracyhotline.org
- Several Boston Centers for Youth and Families community centers offer Hi-SET or GED classes in addition to Hi-SET and GED testing. Visit: <https://bit.ly/3eUt2NN>
- Boston Central Adult High School offers a 16 unit college preparatory or general high school curriculum that will allow students to earn a diploma at night. Visit: www.bostonpublicschools.org/Page/4481
- The Family Literacy Program through the Boston Public School system offers Hi-SET preparation, adult basic education, ESOL and computer classes for parents/guardians of BPS students. Visit: www.bostonpublicschools.org/Page/4486
- Boston Adult Diploma Program is a pathway for adults 23 and older to earn a high school diploma through the Boston Public School system. Call 617-635-9827 or (617) 635-9300 to learn about participating agencies. Visit: www.bostonpublicschools.org/Page/4482
- The Career Pathways Program through Boston Public Schools offers city residents age 16-35 who have “recently dropped or aged out of school” a pathway to complete high school or pursue Hi-SET certification while exploring careers in culinary arts, automotive, and building maintenance. Visit: www.bostonpublicschools.org/Page/4483
- Bunker Hill Community College offers state grant funded Hi-SET classes in English and Spanish, including ESOL and basic education pre-Hi-SET classes. For information about Spanish language courses, call (617) 228-3341. For English language courses, call (978) 270-0836. Visit: www.bhcc.edu/adulted